

A Gadgetless World

What would life be like without electronic devices?

Tell a story about what your life would be like if there were no smart phones, televisions, computers or electronic games. What would you do after school or work? What would you do before going to bed? What would a typical day be for you? Do you think you would prefer life without electronic devices or with electronic devices and why?